

The image is a cadastral map of a residential area. It shows numerous plots of land, many of which are outlined in red. Buildings are represented by black outlines with internal details. Infrastructure, including roads and railways, is shown with black lines. A red circle highlights a specific plot of land in the lower right quadrant. The map includes various numerical labels, likely representing plot numbers or area measurements. The text 'Kamiejskie' is visible on the left side, and 'Podlesie' is visible on the right side. The map is oriented with North at the top.
